To the Japanese Ambassador
Washington, D.C.

Dear Sir:

You possibly may know that our Museum here has a very splendid collection of Orders and Decorations. It is our aim to keep this collection up to date and we have recently been completing the medals issued by the different countries during the World War. We have now practically everything, with the exception of Japan. We should greatly appreciate it if you would be so kind as to use your good offices to see if we could obtain any World War medals, both military and naval, issued by the Japanese Government.

Thanking you for anything you may be able to do for our Society, I am,

Very truly yours,

Curator
